in the organisation Centar za osobni i profesionalni razvoj Syncro - Synergy Croatia

in Zagreb, Croatia
from 01/05/2021 to 26/06/2021

INFORMATION ABOUT THE PROJECT:

Changing the world from my neighborhood is project in which international volunteers create and deliver workshops for local school children and refugee community kids, with an aim to introduce their culture and countries.

Volunteers have support of a local elderly person who is supporting the volunteer in planning their activities.

Additionally, volunteers carry out a personal project in form of Syncro youth club (Syncloud) workshop for general audience.

THE TASKS OF FRANCESCO CASTIGLIONE IN THE PROJECT:

The tasks of the participants were to create 2 lesson plans and to deliver 45 minute long workshops for children with an aim to introduce Italy as a country and culture. He was paired up with a mentor who supported him in planning and delivering the activities. He carried out a personal project in form of a Syncro youth club (Syncloud) and media activities in order to promote the project and share its results.

The European Solidarity Corps is a European Union programme, which provides volunteering, traineeship and job opportunities to young people who want to bring positive change to communities across Europe and beyond. It allows young people to develop themselves and gain valuable competences through an enriching experience abroad or in their home country, while promoting the value of solidarity, citizenship and social cohesion.
