MOBILITY OF YOUTH WORKERS

Learning mobility projects of youth workers support the professional development of youth workers by enabling them to acquire new skills and professional experiences. The projects may include transnational activities such as seminars, training courses, contact-making events, study visits and job shadowing periods abroad. The projects also contribute to strengthening the quality and the role of youth work in Europe.

Erasmus+ is the European Union's programme for boosting skills and employability through activities organised in the field of education, training, youth, and sport. Youth activities under Erasmus+ aim to improve the key competences, skills and employability of young people, promote young people's active participation in the society, their social inclusion and well-being, and foster improvements in youth work and youth policy at local, national and international level.

Youthpass

With this document we certify that Francesco Castiglione took part in a project called IVS4Life. It was a training course. The project was hosted by SIW International Volunteer Projects. The participation was supported by InformaGiovani.

Within Erasmus+, a training course is a project where youth workers and youth leaders come together for several days to develop their knowledge, skills, and attitudes on a certain theme. The daily programme of the course is based on learning objectives and facilitated by experienced trainers. The training courses promote the initiative and creativity of participants and have a direct impact on their future youth work or youth policy activities, such as organising quality projects and providing intercultural and non-formal learning experiences for young people.

Altogether, 16 people from Estonia, Finland, Italy, Latvia, Netherlands, Serbia, and Turkey took part in the project.

The overall aim and specific objectives of the project:

- (1) To increase IVS camp group leaders' skills, knowledge, attitude and confidence to facilitate their IVS camp young volunteers' cross-cultural exchange and personal development;
- (2) To provide IVS camp group leaders with practical methods, including forum theatre, on team building, group process, problem solving, cross-cultural communication, reflection and evaluation;
- (3) To develop an action plan for the IVS camp group leaders to lead their IVS camp

Person in charge of the project

Francesco Castiglione participated in the project IVS4Life. Francesco Castiglione had the following specific role / responsibility within the project:

The participant's task was to improve competencies and skills about Forum Theatre and on how to apply the acquired knowledge when leading International Volunteering Service Workcamps.

This part of the certificate is a self-assessment of learning and competence acquisition completed by the participant during the project. It is based on the Key Competences for Lifelong Learning defined by the European Union, and the specific competences tackled in the course of the project.

MULTILINGUAL COMPETENCE

I improved my assertiveness skills in English.

PERSONAL, SOCIAL AND LEARNING TO LEARN COMPETENCE

I improved my attitude of collaboration thanks to some team-building activities such as the "Mission Impossible" task, and I was also able to reflect on myself regarding my strengths and weaknesses about being a Camp Leader.

ENTREPRENEURSHIP COMPETENCE

The Training Course offered me practical examples and the tools to improve my leadership and entrepreneurship skills.

CULTURAL AWARENESS AND EXPRESSION COMPETENCE

I learned new ways to express my creativity through the Forum Theatre.
